Keegan Mueller Joins Bulldog Wrestling Staff

Charleston, S.C. – The Citadel Wrestling program welcomes Keegan Mueller as a graduate assistant to the coaching staff for the 2010-2011 season.

“We are very pleased to welcome Keegan to our staff,” said Head Coach Rob Hjerling. “He is going to be working with our middle and heavy weight guys. He will also be a big boost for recruiting. At North Carolina, he had a very good career and brings a lot of great experience as he comes into pursue his master’s degree here at The Citadel.”

Mueller was a two-time all-conference selection at North Carolina, where graduated in 2009. He won the ACC title in 2009 and served as the team captain for the Tar Heels in both his junior and senior seasons. In addition, he received the 2007-2008 Athletic Director's Scholar-Athlete Award at UNC.

The Dallas, Texas native has also spent time working at Fortune Magazine and working as a District Sales Manager for Automatic Data Processing Magazine.

Keegan is currently pursuing a degree in Business Administration in The Citadel Graduate College and resides in West Ashley.
